APPAREL

COLLECTION

The references are clear: the belted waistline, a sculpted torso, precision engineered patterns, leg highlights and fine-seam detailing. APPAREL is an ode to the world of haute couture and costume design, where a distinctive visual signature and bespoke customisation options are de rigour.

Inspired by his formative years prop making in the London theatre scene, Didier's APPAREL collection takes its cues from majestic costuming and an inquiry into high-fashion construction.

APPAREL chairs are defined by a contoured silhouette. The signature wingback chair, in particular, highlights Didier's bold design moves with its 'cinched waist', voluptuous headrest, and distinctive profile.

Characteristic of the bespoke nature of fashion ateliers, each APPAREL piece can be upholstered in sumptuous fabrics or leathers, elevating its unique sartorial status from the ordinary to the sublime.
